Metatron

The Mars Volta

Maybe I?11 breakdown
Maybe I?11 try
Circumvent inoculation
And I just want a cut

When will I breakdown
Lately I might
Unconnect the fascination
And I just want to touch

This is a list
They?re my demands
Forget the question
Come on, bring your nervous hands

You read it in my letter 'Patience worth is dead' Suffocate the inkwell I am legion said the pen

Her seraph snout
And cruciform limp
I blame the shrouding
Of a lesser man

My sigil contraptions
They work with no crutches
Don?t show me the hinges
I am absent

Maybe I?11 breakdown Maybe I?11 try Circumvent inoculation And I just want a cut

When will I breakdown
Lately I might
Unconnect the fascination
And I just want to touch

She came to me when she was Pouring out of drool Under sedation Under vulgar multitudes

If you stay and try
To fix what you did
The sheets were wet from
All those messages

A million petitions, her lock with no key You forfeit the right to be believed Full implant, shapeless as a jewel And I am stranded by eternal solitude

Maybe I?ll breakdown Maybe I?ll try

Circumvent inoculation And I just want a cut

When will I breakdown Lately I might Unconnect the fascination And I just want to touch

The vault that I call home It falls beneath your palms Before I crawl my way out She calls

You?re standing right outside my window Water thirsting
You're standing right outside my window Water thirsting, will I drown

I?ll never get a distance shot Heard vesper pure I never wanna see your face 'Til the word is made flesh

You?d better ask Metatron
Those flowers that withered away
In the pages of your book
For one day they won?t block your route

In the dead plot you dream in Ten go away Ten born of pray Ten go away

Folding wormholes
My time is riding in the alphabet
Folding wormholes
My time is writing on the wall

In the dead plot you dream in Ten go away Ten born of pray Ten go away

Folding wormholes
My time is riding in the alphabet
Folding wormholes
My time is writing on the wall

Debase by your sentence I fell in the trap What door slid behind me I can?t see it anymore

When she sleeps as a witness Got no better hands Tied a single stutter Do you speak my dialect?

Accidents will happen Keep your earnings to yourself One sip under the table Until it moves all by itself In the eye of Fatima I kept all your dreams In a waking solution Of indictment

Maybe I?11 try
Circumvent inoculation

When will I breakdown
