The Marvelettes

Doo-do-do-doo doo
Doo-do-do-doo
Doo-do-do-doo doo
Doo-do-do-doo

Everybody knows, everybody knows but you
That's what I say, now (Everybody knows but you)
Listen, baby
Everybody knows, everybody knows but you
Oh ho ho (Everybody knows but you)

You were my long-lost my dream
Oh, baby, baby, baby
That came true to me when I was down and out
And living in a world of fantasy, yes I was
It changed my whole life to a world of reality

And when you're away from me
There's a major love
Just thinking about you
My heart was disturbed (My poor heart was disturbed)

Everybody knows, everybody knows but you
Oh oh oh oh, yes sir (Everybody knows but you)
Everybody knows, everybody knows but you
Oh ho ho, oh (Everybody knows but you)

You're so good to me, honey
In every little old way
Oh, how can I express
Just how you make me feel
You took me, yes you did
And you made me feel
Made me feel, baby
Like a woman should feel

I'll always be (I'll always be) a fool for you (A fool for you)
Just call my name, and I'll come runnin' to you (I'll come runnin' right to you)

Oh baby (Yeah)
Uh-huh baby (Yeah)
Understand me baby (Yeah baby)
Feel what I feel
'Cause you know (Yeah)
My love is real (Yeah)
Oh oh (Yeah yeah)
Oh (Yeah yeah)

Doo-do-do-doo doo
Doo-do-do-doo
Doo-do-do-doo doo
Doo-do-do-doo

Toss away all your doubts and fears
My love will last, little darling
Down through the years

Words of love are not easy for me to say (Easy to say)
When I try to show you, in my lil old way (In my little old way)

Everybody knows, everybody knows but you
Oh oh, hear me when I say now, baby (Everybody knows but you)
Everybody knows, everybody knows but you
Alright, oh oh oh oh (Everybody knows but you)
