

So Long Baby

The Marvelettes

(So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)

I thought you loved me, but you hurt me cruel
Now I'm going to leave you 'cause I know your love's not true
You heard me sighing, you leave, just love you so
You gave me no warning, so I've got to let you go

So long baby (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
(So long baby)

So long baby, this is goodbye
Now it's my turn to make you cry
You played the game of breaking others hearts
Now the time has come that we must part
So long baby (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)

Please don't ask me to come back
I've made up my mind, and baby, that's that
So long baby (So long baby)
So long (So long baby)
This is goodbye (So long baby)
