The Matches

My home won't long stay in your driveway my home's a-honking for to carry me away so I turn your lips astray I turn your lips astray and I make like yesterday
like yesterday

Since all my candles fit on one cake took from my folks all the advantage I could take repaid them with a wave
and I made like yesterday
like yesterday

See, I'm borrowed from much greater men, sir but the backslash youth don't give two damns though, for my lender so I bow upon their stage said, I bow upon your stage
like yesterday

I give you all a wave

This could be for good
What if this is good?
Is this for good?

Our Shell refinery by midnight rivalled in beauty only by the stars' own light so I drop my eyes away said, we drop our eyes away

I serve one purpose on this dying earth to keep her turning by my wheels upon her dirt for your sake, I cannot stay for our sake, I cannot stay must make like yesterday

I give you all a wave
like yesterday

My home won't long stay in your driveway my home's still honking for to carry me away so I turn your lips astray said, I turn your lips astray

three, four
I said like yesterday
day after yesterday, say day after yesterday just like yesterday
