

Cemetery's Garden

The Menzingers

I've got a secret hanging overhead
They'll leave no stone unturned
No words unsaid
I don't want to be alone
No, I'm never alone

I heard the whispers coming through the walls
Why the sudden interest in my long-distance calls?
I don't want to be alone
Now, I'm never alone

All night I'm listening
All night I'm listening
All night I'm listening
Same old story, none of the glory
Same old story, none of the glory
Same old story, none of the glory

Our other brother and our diaries
Writing our unauthorized biographies
I don't want to be alone
No I'm never alone
Just want to be alone
Now I'm never alone

All night I'm listening
All night I'm listening
All night I'm listening
Same old story, none of the glory
All night I'm listening
All night I'm listening
All night I'm listening
Same old story, none of the glory
Same old story, none of the glory
Same old story, none of the glory

You can bury us but we're seeds
Cemetery's garden
You can bury us but we're seeds
Cemetery's garden
You can bury us but we're seeds
Cemetery's garden
You can bury us but we're seeds
Cemetery's garden

You can bury us but we're seeds
Cemetery's garden
You can bury us but we're seeds
Cemetery's garden
You can bury us but we're seeds
Cemetery's garden
