

My friends don't like me as much as they like their video games
They play for hour after hour every day is the same,
My friends don't go out, they stay in or out
Cause out is not in
They won't gang up on them cause it knows they're not interesting

Love is all it takes to break a heart,
But I don't have the friends to lend when I'm falling apart,
They don't say a word,
All my friends are nerds

The other day I met a girl and didn't know what to do
Can't say a word, can't even think,
My mind's been blackened and blued

Love is all it takes to break a heart,
But I don't have the friends to lend when I'm falling apart,
I know it sounds absurd
All my friends are nerds

Cause all my friends
Cause all my, all my
All my friends are nerds

My friends don't like me as much as they like their video games
But I've found new ones now I'll never need to see them again,
They don't say a word,
All my friends are nerds

(They're tighter than their jeans,
As nerdy as they seem,
Their cardigans are bright,
Their social skills are shite)

All my friends are nerds
(Motherfucking nerds)
