

Change Your Heart Or Die

The Midnight

Took a lot of money to look the part
Took a lot of pain to tame a heart
Took a lot of years to lose my fear of flying
Took a long time to finally start
Then it took a good day to fall apart
Took a lot of tears to lose my fear of crying
Of crying

Change your heart or die

Fire, ticking like a time bomb
Fire, burning like a napalm
Fire, waiting at the crossroads
How will you survive?
Change your heart or die

Took one look to find your mark
Took a rogue wave to blow apart
Took a wrong turn to finally find the yearning
In the burning

Fire, ticking like a time bomb
Fire, burning like a napalm
Fire, waiting at the crossroads
How will you survive?

Fire, ticking like a time bomb
Fire, burning like a napalm
Fire, waiting at the crossroads
How will you survive?
Change your heart or die

Fire, ticking like a time bomb
Fire, burning like a napalm
Fire, waiting at the crossroads
How will you survive?

Fire, ticking like a time bomb
Fire, burning like a napalm
Fire, waiting at the crossroads
How will you survive?
Change your heart or die
