

Prom Night

The Midnight

There's an open road
And now an open door
And a pretty girl's hand
Beside yours

Do you know what to do
As she looks at you?
Can you leap from the ledge
And bridge the two halves of the world?

Hold her hand
We'll never pass this way again
Hold her hand
Forever or a slow dance
A breath as deep as you make it
There's a chance if you take it
And a heart that you break is still a heart
Hold her hand
Hold her hand

There's an open floor
As the chorus soars
And a pretty girl's hand
Beside yours

Who knows what you'll find
But the threshold shines
Can you leap from the ledge
And bridge the two halves of the world?

Hold her hand
We'll never pass this way again
Hold her hand
Forever or a slow dance
A breath as deep as you make it
There's a chance if you take it
And a heart that you break is still a heart
Hold her hand
Hold her hand

Prom night turns to daylight rediscovered
Friends become lovers under covers

Hold her hand
We'll never pass this way again
Hold her hand
Forever or a slow dance
A breath as deep as you make it
There's a chance if you take it
And a heart that you break is still a heart
Hold her hand
Hold her hand

Hold her hand
