

Runaways

The Midnight

When the sun is going down
Sinking to the ground
Don't you get that feeling?
Yeah
Like you gotta get away
'Cause, baby, if we stay
We might stop believing
Yeah

Baby, we've been living like there's nothing to find
But maybe we can take it to the end of the line and see
So if I get a ticket, would you take it to ride?
We'll hit the city limits and we'll leave it behind, be free
Looking for that feeling

You wanna run away
Before the summer fades
You know it's not too late
California dreaming, looking for that feeling

You wanna run away
Before the summer fades
You know it's not too late
California dreaming, looking for that feeling

Sun is going down
Over this town
Don't you get that feeling?
Yeah
Got to get away
'Cause, baby, if we stay
We're gonna hit that ceiling
Feel like disappearing, oh

Baby, we've been living like there's nothing to find
But maybe we can take it to the end of the line and see
So if I get a ticket, would you take it to ride?
We'll hit the city limits and we'll leave it behind, be free
