

The Comeback Kid

The Midnight

I've been so low
Felt the wind blow
Like I was a screen door
In a thunderstorm

Yeah I've been down
You've been laid out
But you always were
What I came here for

Waiting all day
Just for my say
For a bell to ring
For the first sting

Yeah I've been blue
That ain't nothing new
It's you my friend
Why I get up again

I've made mistakes
And I've been hard hit
I say so what
So what if I did
I'm the clear eyed
I'm the comeback kid

It's been a rough year
Been some tough tears
I've lost so fast
All that I had
But when it's time to
I'll fight for you
Cause you know you are
Why I've come so far

I've made mistakes
And I've been hard hit
I say so what
So what if I did
I'm the clear eyed
I'm the comeback kid

Start it over
Start it over again
I'm the clear eyed
I'm the comeback kid

I've made mistakes
And I've been hard hit
I say so what
So what if I did
I'm the clear eyed
I'm the comeback kid

Start it over
Start it over again

I'm the clear eyed
I'm the comeback kid
