

A Reason to Toast

The Mighty Mighty Bosstones

I'd like to open up by making a suggestion,
One that I suggest you open too,
And then I'll open up the floor and take a question,
After that it's time to tilt a few to you and you and you,

A reason to toast,
A reason to cheer,
A reason to celebrate,
It's nice being here,

You might be wondering just why I called this meeting
Can't let another moment pass
Before we move on please let's rearrange the seating
After that its time to raise a glass

I'll raise my glass up high to all the friendly faces,
Here and wherever they may be,
I don't know why I never thought till now to say this,
But you mean the world to me,

A reason to toast,
A reason to cheer
A reason to celebrate,
It's nice being here,

Let's raise a glass up high because we're here together
What better reason could exist?
Hey! Let's!
Let's raise a glass what could be better than this?
If! You're! Without a glass then let's see your fist
Get 'em up there boys!

A reason to toast,
A reason to cheer
A reason to celebrate,
It's nice being here
