

Green Bay, Wisconsin

The Mighty Mighty Bosstones

She would not let Green Bay Wisconsin destroy her
Gave her two week notice to her longtime employer
At Schreiber Foods Incorporated
Where she nearly suffocated
She drew a war tribe skull with a Sharpie fine point marker
On the back of her army green Fred Perry parka
Drove her Vespa motor scooter overnight right through the valley
To the Lake Geneva motor scooter rally
Checked into the Chateau Royale Inn
She had to let the living part of life begin

Moving on forward, she rallied and she ran
Romp the Moonstomp, she did the running man
Skankin' and a rankin' full stop and full force
One step with the old "come on"
With no apologies, regrets, shame or remorse

She met the guy that plays the bass for the Pietasters
She had little to no interest, but he chased her
Scalawags Scally cap and Sherman suit
Inequity and ill repute
She drank a pint of Guinness Stout and got away
Got out her matte black pair of Beats by Dre
Trojan, Blue Beat, and 2Tone
The Skatalites, Guns of Navarone
Back to the Chateau Royal Inn
She had to let the living part of life begin (again!)

Moving on forward, she rallied and she ran
Romp the Moonstomp, she did the running man
Skankin' and a rankin' full stop and full force
One step with the old "come on"
