Snake Eyes

The Milk Carton Kids

Swing low, swing low For to carry me home In fire the skies of red My breath's gone cold A kiss from the coal A blanket of snow overhead Slow, holy roller It's just rock and roll Hold your tears Where they've hung all these years Down from the heavens above

Old snake eyes You had better disguise All that appears of thee Pray for love From the heavens above Laid in the ashes below Laid in the ashes below Laid in the ashes below
