

The Only One I Love

The Miracles

I love you so much
I, I, I, I am blushed
Ooh, maybe you cry just for fun
Oh, but now you've gone away and all that I can say
Is that in my life you're still the only one

And now I walk alone, sad and blue
Found out my love for you must have been true
Oh, I hope it's not my fate that I found out too late
That the only one I love is you

I, I, I, I will be blue
And I, I, I, I, I, I will be lonely too
Until you come on home, I'll be all alone
'Cause the only one I love is you
Oh, so come on home
I'm suffering from a bad case of the blues
It's your love that I hate to lose
Come on, come on, come on, come on, come home
Baby, I just want you to say that you'll be mine
