

Love Can Tame The Wild

The Monks

Thru the years, smiles and tears
Live as one will come a son
Love's a thing that loves to sing
Love can tame the wild

Man can't cry like I try
Tears don't bring, how they sting
Know your touch, love so much
Love can tame the wild

Do you know the taste of silver moonlight?

Soft and blue, I'll kiss you
So much glory not the story
Roar of star, it's so far
Love can tame the wild

Thru the years, smiles and tears
Live as one will come a son
Love's a thing that loves to sing
Love can tame the wild

Do you know the taste of silver moonlight?

Love can tame the wild
