Jack

The Monochrome Set

And stars shine silver
Kissing the backs of lonely boys
Their books and toys
Trailing blood

So far away
Watching the fireworks in the sky
Someone will cry
Oh, my baby

Jack!

Poisonous dreams
Vampires obscenely suck in the dark
Bent over stark
Naked lunch

Primeval sea
One body splits in two and then three
Something will die
Oh, my baby

Jack!

And in the night
There will be peace and light and love
Yes, there will be
Love, oh, baby

We walk in twos upon the ark
Our footsteps glitter in the dark
Our eyes are always open
Our eyes are always open

Jack!
