

Sweet Chariots

The Monochrome Set

Starry midnight, robed in shadows
Give my weary heart release
Spread your sable covering mantle
Over me, to rest in peace
And my eyes are staring blankly
And my teeth are shining bright
And sweet, sweet chariots]
They roll across the sky]
Sweet, sweet chariots]
They roll across the sky] (Chorus)
Midnight prowlers of the jungle
Steal beneath the holy shade
Just as the breath obscures the mirror
So reflections slowly fade
And my voice is ever singing
And my soul is full of light
(Chorus)
Thundercloud, black and grey
Getting darker every day
I am blessed, I am an angel
And my wings are silver-white
(Chorus)
