

Run

The Moog

The soul shakes again
It wakes up the pain
The ghosts came to town
There's no time for us to slow down

Where are we running now? x2
The lights are burning out We're full with silent shouts

Nothing is fast
We're losing our past Look up to the skies
(The) glare of brightness is here to rise

Where are we running now? x2
Too scared to settle down always lose what we found just

Run Run Run

Do you wanna leave?
I don't wanna leave
You might be deceived
if you do believe we can really leave

runrunrun
Straight to the sun
the reason is gone
just runrunrun
