

Penny Arcade

The Moonglows

One day I was walking and dreaming
Then I heard a melody playing
I followed it to, by the light of the moon
And found a penny arcade

I went to a gypsy old lady
And she read my fortune to me
She told me at a glance that our romance
Would last till eternity

I left and the silly old lady
Said you must be going out of your mind
Then she turned and and walked away
I could hardly keep from crying

Taking all you young lovers
If you hear a melody playing
Don't bother to do, by the light of the moon
Or you'll find the gypsy and the penny arcade
You'll find the gypsy and the penny arcade
Ooh woo ooh
