The Moth & The Flame

Flip the critter off of its back
And thinks he's flipping the bird
Now the bugs are taking over
And they're pulling us apart

And I'll wait alone
Yes, I'll wait alone

We tried but they tore us apart
We gave our all, but it wasn't enough
We lied, but they ran right through us
"All of your lives, all of your lives," they say
"All of your lives, all of your lives are ours
They're ours"

The Devil's taking his time, oh
Grinning, tipping his cap, oh
Checkmate

And I'll wait alone
Yes, I'll wait alone

We tried but they tore us apart
We gave our all, but it wasn't enough
We lied but they ran right through us
"All of your lives, all of your lives," they say
"All of your lives, all of your lives are ours
They're ours"
