The Moth & The Flame

In everyone's heart
There is a place
In everyone's heart
Where love is the fool
Love is the air
It's out of this place

It's all very common here
It's all very common

In everyone's heart
There is a place
In everyone's heart
And there is a table
In everyone's heart
And we have a seat

And there is a home
In everyone's heart
Where we go to sleep
And there is a family
In everyone's heart
Dying to meet us

It's all very common here
It's all very common here
It's all very common here at home
It's all very common
It's all very common here at home
It's all very common

Everyone I love will be there
Everything will be beautiful and so clear

(Everyone I love will be there)
In everyone's heart
There is a place
In everyone's heart
(Everything will be beautiful and so clear)
And there is no fear
There is no hatred
And there is no pain
(Everyone I love will be there)
And there is no death
There is no too late
And there is no loss
(Everything will be beautiful and so clear)
And there is no fear
There is no hatred
In anyone's hearts

It's all very common here
It's all very common here
It's all very common here at home
It's all very common here
It's all very common here at home
It's all very common here at home
It's all very common
