

Life In The Doorway

The Moth & The Flame

We live in the doorway
I fell in love and there was nothing there to save me from
I fell alone into
I fell alone into
You
You

[?] in our tracks
Come on in and rest
We live in the doorway

I fell in love and there was nothing there to save me from
I fell alone into
I fell alone into
You
You

Can you hear your thoughts?
Do you fear the worst?

Tell me what I am not
What I am not
I am not
Don't tell me that I cannot
That I cannot
I cannot
And I will not
Live in the doorway

I fell in love and there was no one there to save me from
I fell alone into
I fell alone into
You
You

Life in the doorway
Colors us the wrong way
You won't lose
But you will never win

Life in the doorway
Colors us the wrong way
I would rather try
I would rather try
I would rather try
