

Sorry

The Moth & The Flame

I'm sorry for everything I've done
And I'll no sooner lay down
Than I'll be anything I'm not
I don't question the rules
I answer for them

Ooh...

I'm sorry for everything I've done
And I'll no sooner lay down
Than I'll be anything I'm not
I don't question the rules
I answer for them

Ooh...

Did you think your heart could change my mind?
Did you think your heart could save my life?
How is it we were always running out of love
But never walked away
How is it we were always running out of love
But never walked away?
How is it we were always running out of love
But never walked away
Did you think your heart could change my mind?

Sorry
