The Mountain Goats

The mailman brought the mail by
But the devil sent the rain
The mailman brought the mail by
But the devil sent the rain
And the rain tore through the streets
Tore down Los Flores Canyon again

If the leak was in the attic
Then we'd all be doomed for sure
If the leak was in the attic
Then we'd all be doomed for sure
There's a leak up in the attic
Honey, let's get out of here

Gotta keep moving, gotta keep moving
Blues falling down like hail
Gotta keep moving
Blues falling down like hail
The sunlight keeps to worrying me
There's a hellhound on my trail
