The Movement

Listen, if you want the truth, you can call me
Cause a liar can leave you lonely
And girl, from everything that you told me
I could have said I told you
Every little boy seems like he's playing
But finally you saw what I'm saying
It's so clear, we've got nothing to fear
Now this is what you hear when I hold you

I can't explain what you're doing to me
It's a love that you see in the movies
I'll always be real to you, truly
I'll never be an actor

I can't explain what you're doing to me
It's a love that you see in the movies
I'll always be real to you, truly
I'll never be an actor

Hotter the fire, they say the stronger the flame
I say the bigger the liar, you know
The weaker the game
If you take a hundred pretenders
You won't remember the name
But I bet when I walk out the room
You won't ever be the same
Girl, you've gotten me
Honestly, there's no need to be modest
See, as long as we've been on this odyssey
Dawn was the prophecy
Goddess, we honor the policy
Possibly, we won the lottery
Gotta be, baby you are the hottest thing
I gotta sing

I can't explain what you're doing to me
It's a love that you see in the movies
I'll always be real to you, truly
I'll never be an actor

I can't explain what you're doing to me
It's a love that you see in the movies
I'll always be real to you, truly
I'll never be an actor

Got you lookin at my sundress
All gold and backless
Sipping coolers on the beach and feeling so blessed
I say we can beat stress, light up and feel less
Take a Polaroid cuz you and I we got this Don't go being worried about what we could be
I'm a show you how to love and love you so frequently
I can be here in the morning or dig out gracefully
Don't be worried bout a thing I'm not an actress but I know what I bring

I can't explain what you're doing to me
It's a love that you see in the movies

I'll always be real to you, truly
I'll never be an actor

I can't explain what you're doing to me
It's a love that you see in the movies
I'll always be real to you, truly
I'll never be an actor

Never gonna be an actor
Never gonna be an actor
The kind of love that you see in the movies
Never gonna be an actor
