

Be Easy

The Movement

Brian told me sometime long ago that it fades
When you're doing the same thing, pursuing the same dreams
I gotta tell him, yeah I know sometimes this life stings
Too loud your ears ring, too proud these girls scheme
But he knows that, we ain't no bricks in the wall
Shit, we can't laugh no more without the alchohol

And then I see my baby with a smile so bright
I can't live this world without her beautiful light
I can't live this world without fightin my fight
But I can't stop my plight so I just dream every night

Athena asks me to please pass the rum
I know the future's callin, best is yet to come
My baby asks me to please pass the rum
I know the best is yet to come
I know the best is yet to come

So please please don't you die on me
The trees these they got roots underneath
Time for everybody to make their own peace
You reap what you sow, so on my knees I'm just like
Ease ease, god be easy today
Got so much more that I've been wantin to say
You knew we'd miss our brothers but you took them away
So I only got time to play
If I only had more time to pray

Remember that night on a sacred grave when we played
I've never been the same way, I think my life changed
Then he told me, "give me something I wanna hear
Make my problems disappear, no fear but a cold beer yo"
I feel ya brian we ain't no bricks in the wall
Shit we can't laugh no more without the alchohol

And then I see my baby with a smile so bright
I can't live this world without her beautiful light
I can't live this world without fightin my fight
But I can't stop my plight so I just dream every night

Athena asks me to please pass the rum
I know the future's callin, best is yet to come
My baby asks me to please pass the rum
I know the best is yet to come
I know the best is yet to come

So please please don't you die on me
The trees these they got roots underneath
Time for everybody to make their own peace
