

Fair Warning

The Movement

Why do they try to put their reasoning aside
I look, they're teetering on pride- they get the heater and they hide
They sneak a little piece of life then hole up, obey, and abide
When all the Universe, it tries to get you reeling- get you right

Some people- they act like they don't know
Ignorant man backlines the whole show
Always looking for snack time, you won't grow
Never loosen the slack, I grab hold

This life and this music is just a part of me
We don't try to refuse it- it is not hard to see
Never gonna abuse it- I got a fair warning
So now I live my life to spread love

This life and this music is just a part of me
We don't try to refuse it- it is not hard to see
Never gonna abuse it- I got a fair warning
So now I live my life to spread love

I see the sun as always burning, always one
It never let's me down- it teaches me where to reach and where to run
So when life gets you down and people start to preach- the weight's a ton
Well girl now you know just where you can come for fun

We see the light as it is piercing through this dark and evil cloud
We hear the screaming of the system so we keep the music loud
We look for truth and beauty rising from the crowd
Father you must be proud
Mother you held it down

This life and this music is just a part of me
We don't try to refuse it- it is not hard to see
Never gonna abuse it- I got a fair warning
So now I live my life to spread love

This life and this music is just a part of me
We don't try to refuse it- it is not hard to see
Never gonna abuse it- I got a fair warning
So now I live my life to spread love

Why do they try to put their reasoning aside
I look, they're teetering on pride- they get the heater and they hide
They sneak a little piece of life then hole up, obey, and abide
When all the Universe, it tries to get you reeling- get you right

Some people- they act like they don't know
Ignorant man backlines the whole show
Always looking for snack time, you won't grow
Never loosen the slack, I grab hold

This life and this music is just a part of me
We don't try to refuse it- it is not hard to see
Never gonna abuse it- I got a fair warning
So now I live my life to spread love