

Deal With It

The Movieline

Lessons learned from all my mistakes.
I can't take them back, try to erase.
Plain to see that you're not for me.
And you know why, not gonna explain. Not gonna explain.

I'm gonna break out and meet up with my friends.
Hope they can get me through this again,
'Cause you and me right now cease to be.
Lose my number means stop calling me.

It's over now, get used to it.
Just burn my picture and go to sleep.
It's over now, I'm sure of it.
Forget my number and don't call me. Don't call me.

Lessons learned. Plain to see.
Gonna break out, 'cause you and me cease to be,
So stop calling me (stop calling me.)

It's over now, get used to it.
Just burn my picture and go to sleep.
It's over now, I'm sure of it.
Forget my number and don't call me.
