You and I are different
And I know why
You are not completely there
And you wonder why you don't cry

If you open up you'll see
It's a new life
Wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb

I never liked to think or feel So you don't now Never missed a thing you think But you wonder why you're not happy

If you open up you'll see
It's a new life
Wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb

Until you hate you will never know What love is Until that day you will never feel A thing, yeah

If you open up you'll see
It's a new life
Wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb

You wonder why, you wonder why You're numb You wonder why, you wonder why You're numb, you're numb
