

The Awakening

The Murder of My Sweet

Revolution, war or rapture never bother thee
The second coming is just a tale to rock a child to sleep
Politicians, lawyers, all the scum of earth they sing
For good, for bad
In life, in death

God sees all
Though it's dark
Why won't you obey?
Please go back to Hell

I just came out of Hell
Without a soul to celebrate in me
I can barely walk
But misery loves company

It's wet and cold up here
Another dump compiled of souls in fear
Did I leave for this?
Must be more than what's out here

And I laugh
At their pitiful faces
When they cry
Seems so lost and small

The awakening
Burning halo winds
Fallen angels dream
Of a new regime
The arisen will thrive
In the arms of the rite
The awakening
Bad intentions bliss
Like a winter kiss
So unraveling
I'm awake and it's time
For your heart to be mine

And so my quest begins
Must find a way to end my suffering
Get to Michael's court
Feel the love in heavens kiss

And I laugh
At their pitiful faces
When they cry
Seems so lost and small

The awakening
Burning halo winds
Fallen angels dream
Of a new regime

Like a winter kiss
I'm awake and it's time

A part of me is still okay
A pretty little bird all caged
I'll do whatever it may take
Move mountains if they're in my way
I'm starting war to end one
Waiting for the raven call

Waiting for the raven call

The awakening
Fallen angels dream
Of a new regime
The arisen will thrive
I'm awake and it's time
