

Love's Not Enough

The Mysterines

Headlights, crack through my mind
Alone together, make it up as we go
When inner thoughts have a default pastime
Always the last time, we let it go

Oh, what happened then?
Oh please take it back where we began
Oh, what happens when?
Sometimes love's not enough to make things last

Headlines, ties that won't bind
Together alone, make it up and watch it go
Those inner thoughts have no other pastime
When by your side, we have it all

Oh, what happened then?
Oh please take me back where we began
Oh, what happens when?
Sometimes love's not enough to make things last

We made it, it started
No, I can't stop it, oh no
I will wait, I will wait in the night with you
Forget just who we think we are Together alone no we can't stop it, oh no

Oh, what happened then?
Oh please take me back where we began
Oh, what happens when?
Sometimes love's not enough to make things last
Sometimes love's not enough to make things last
Sometimes love's not enough to make things last

Though love's not enough, there's always
Though love's not enough, there's always you
Though love's not enough, there's always
Though love's not enough, there's always you
