The Nearly Deads

I'm done keeping secrets, fighting demands
I'm not taking these wounds to my grave
Surrounded by monsters with blood on their hands
For the past they can only replay

They knock down my door
Coming up through the floor
But I'm not afraid anymore

This world is relentless, but so am I
No I won't surrender
A force to be reckoned, I've built my defenses
No I won't back down

I'm battered and broken, my spirits been stolen
But I'm taking these wounds to their grave
Surrounded by allies with fire in their eyes
For the past I don't need to deny

They knock down my door
Coming up through the floor
But I'm not afraid anymore

This world is relentless, but so am I
No I won't surrender
A force to be reckoned, I've built my defenses
No I won't back down
This is the place where dreams die
But I hold my head high
Staring my fears in the eye
This world is relentless, but so am I

So (hey, hey) am I (hey, hey)
So (hey, hey) am I (hey, hey)

We are no longer prisoners
Chained to a past filled with pain, loss and regret
Our time is now
Let's rise up together and know this
We are resilient, we are survivors
We are relentless

This world is relentless, but so am I
No I won't surrender
A force to be reckoned, I've built my defenses
No I won't back down
This is the place where dreams die
But I hold my head high
Staring my fears in the eye
This world is relentless, but so am I

(Hey, hey)
(Hey, hey)
