

Art Of The Deal With The Devil

The Network

It's so nefarious that I almost wanna laugh
Almost hilarious that I laugh so hard I cry
You sold your soul out to the autocratic netherworld
Now you're delirious from the devil's poison you have taken

This is the cult of the con artist
And the art of the deal with the devil

You made a deal with the devil

Here come the cannibals and they're feeding on your young
Blood suckin' animals and they're here to eat and run
The beast has risen and it's business casual affair
It's so goddamnable for the pagans and the godforsaken

This is the cult of the con artist
And the art of the deal with the devil

You made a deal with the devil
You got a deal with the devil
You made a deal with the devil
You got a deal with the devil
