Pins and needles, Stones and Beatles
Headphones and a drink
Weary of the same routine
I wanna be tickled pink
Sometimes you need a helping hand
When things are getting dull
Just become ambidextrous
And give yourself a pull

Lotion and Courvoisier
A candle sets the stage
Only on a special night
It's not for every day
Compress the capillaries
On the other hand
When you feel the pins and needles
Now you'll understand
