

Utterly Beloved

The Neville Brothers

True beauty comes from deep inside
Spiritual truth you cannot hide
Love is a blessing you can't disguise
Like the glow of gladness in a baby's eyes
Is utterly beloved

The harmonies of an inspired choir
That someone special who really lights your fire
True love affairs and wedding rings
Giving our children roots and wings
Is utterly beloved

The love of a woman is utterly beloved
The smile of a child is utterly beloved
A point in any star, you're the light that is in my eyes
And you're utterly beloved, utterly beloved to me

Sharing and caring for each other
Every woman or sister, every man or brother
Respect and honesty from a friend
Lost souls redeemed and found again
Utterly beloved

The love of a woman is utterly beloved
The smile of a child is utterly beloved
A point in any star, you're the light that is in my eyes
And you're utterly beloved, utterly beloved to me

The love of a woman is utterly beloved
The smile of a child is utterly beloved
A point in any star, you're the light that is in my eyes
And you're utterly beloved, utterly beloved

The love of a woman is utterly beloved
The smile of a child is utterly beloved
A point in any star, you're the best thing in my life
And you're utterly beloved, utterly beloved
Utterly beloved, utterly beloved to me now... yeah, utterly beloved

You're the best thing in my life
Thank you for being my wife
