

Running Out Of Hearts

The New Roses

So I keep on driving pedal to the metal
Smoking keeps me up so I'm lighting up another one

Everything is said and done
My great escape has just begun
I'm running, I'm running
Cause I'm running out of hearts
I'm running, I'm running
Cause I'm running out of hearts
I'm running out of hearts

All the reasons for the goodbye set with the sun
And your face flashes up before my eyes
What have I done
I got to make it through this lonely night
Your ghost will fade and the sun will rise

I'm running, I'm running
Cause I'm running out of hearts
I'm running, I'm running
Cause I'm running out of hearts

Every beat pumps life back in my veins
And the cut I feel so deep
Will be just another scar that will remain

I'm running, I'm running
Cause I'm running out of hearts
I'm running, I'm running
Cause I'm running out of hearts
