

Turn

The Night Café

It's your turn now
They left me waiting all alone and I said they'd run
It's my fault, no
Cause they knew, I'd give it up and I said they'd run

I should go, I should leave
You don't know, you're not asking me
I should go, they won't learn
I'm told it's my turn

Am I alone or is this me in the zone of my head again?
I don't care
I don't believe it when you tell me that it's alright
I'm overthinking things, my dear
I don't care

I should go, I should leave
You don't know, you're not asking me
I should go, they won't learn I'm told it's my turn
It's my turn

I should go, I should leave
You don't know, you're not asking me
I should go they won't learn
I'm told it's my turn
