

Demon Princess

The Night Flight Orchestra

She's a lady, just another friend of mine
Spending all my money and wasting all my time
She drinks martinis and she drapes herself in pearls
And I miss that girl
I miss her like the world

She's a dancer from a wealthy family
She treats me like a dog but still I'm barking up her tree
I don't know if she will ever set me free
Still I need that girl
I need her in my world

There's no angel on my shoulder
There's no voice inside my head
Just a world that's growing colder
And a demon princess in my bed

She's a vision from the depths of my despair
Descending from the heavens setting fire to the air
She cries in whispers and she speaks me in tongues
And I miss that girl
I miss her like the world

When she comes to me uncovered by the light
She conjures up her beauty from the shadows of the night
I'm going down, but then I guess that it's alright
'Cause I need that girl
I need her in my world

There's no angel on my shoulder
There's no voice inside my head
Just a world that's growing colder
And a demon princess in my bed
In my bed

There's no angel on my shoulder
There's no voice inside my head
Just a world that's growing colder
And a demon princess in my bed
Yeah, yeah, yeah

There's no angel on my shoulder
There's no voice inside my head
Just a world that's growing colder
And a demon princess in my bed
In my bed
