

Frozen Monuments

The Nomad

I was born in the battle
Of the ancient continents
I became the greatest
And established my dominance

Centuries
Pass like seconds to me
Human beings,
You're self-assured and naive
You believe
That you can conquer me
You will give
Your souls to me forever!

Until the end of time your corpse
Will lie on my slopes
You will be frozen monuments
Of your arrogance
Your souls will never leave this place
And will be my slaves
Slaves!

You're so close to the top
And now dead eyes are watching you
Can you do what they failed
Or will join their frozen crew?
