

Purifying Fire

The Nomad

He'll come from hell when people bogged down to the sins
Those called Homo Sapiens have forgotten what it means
No trace of intelligence. This world is corrupted to the core
Only animal instincts: to eat and fuck more and more

They pray to God (God) and throw the cap over the mill
And spill the blood (Blood) in order to get the cup filled
For Babylon's slut (Slut) who holds it as regalia
And every mutt (Mutt) plunges into bacchanalia

(You have) fallen so low
(Your heads) have become hollow
(You've) violated all commandments
(You're) mutilated by madness
(Where) you fuck there, you eat
(And) then you roll in your own shit
(It) is unbearable to
Fucking look at you

Now he's come from hell to remove these parasites
Seeing a giant fiery bird they can't believe their eyes
You cannot hide from punishment and now it's senseless to pray
No one has a chance to survive because the sinless won't remain

(You have) fallen so low
(Your heads) have become hollow
(You've) violated all commandments
(You're) mutilated by madness
(Where) you fuck there, you eat
(And) then you roll in your own shit
(It) is unbearable to
Fucking look at you
Earth is tired
Humanity is mire,
Disgusting empire,
Traitors and liars,
Sinners and friars
Time has expired
You are sentenced to death
By Fire

He's shining like a sun
He's come to burn it down
Your filth, your lust, your perverted desires
Fire is burning bright. Fire is purifying.
