

Alice In Wonderland

The Oak Ridge Boys

Alice is in wonderland
I wonder who she's thinking of
I wonder if another man
Is after my fairy tale love
Is she really walking out on me
Or just playing out a fantasy
Will she still know who I am
When Alice leaves her wonderland

Someone is in her eyes
I can hear it in her lies
There's something I just don't know
Is this the end of my rainbow
Her mind is so far away
And she doesn't have that much to say
I really hate to think it's because
She's found another wizard of Oz

When will she wake up and realize
Things aren't always what they seem
And after she faces reality
Will I still be in her dreams

Will I still be her man
When Alice leaves her wonderland
