

Divine Witness

The Oak Ridge Boys

I am a divine witness
I have seen things that only faith can explain
Like the power of love and forgiveness
Oh I am a divine witness

Thank Heaven for Heaven on Earth
For her hand on my heart when it hurts
For the miracles made every day
Once you open your arms and believe

I am a divine witness
I've lived out the dream that only faith can explain
Like the power of love and forgiveness
Oh I am a divine witness

Trust me when I say it's real
The tears and the joy
The feelings you feel
And know that it's free to receive
Once you open your arms and believe

I am a divine witness
I have seen things that only faith can explain
Like the power of love and forgiveness
Oh I am a divine witness
Oh I am a divine witness
