

Happy Christmas Eve

The Oak Ridge Boys

The snow is falling
Look out the window with me
Come and hold me tenderly
And watch the wind blow
And the people passin' by
The snow is in the street
The kids are fast asleep
We're all alone now
Happy Christmas eve

I'll turn the lights down
And set the tree aglow
You wrap the presents
And trim the bow
And say you'll love me
For another year
The stockings have been hung
The carols have been sung
We're all alone now
Happy Christmas eve
