

Reindeer on the Roof

The Oak Ridge Boys

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

Might be the snow, it might be the breeze
The wind might have blown down the old oak tree
Mama looked out the window
We asked what she saw
Shh, that might be Santa Claus

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

That's a lot of racket for a Christmas moon
More than saint nick in his shiny black boots
Eight sleigh pullers makes thirty-two hooves
I think I hear a reindeer on the roof

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

Dasher, Dancer, Prancer and Vixen
Comet, Cupid, Donner and Blitzen
They sure make a lot of noise for a silent night
They better not tangle up the Christmas lights

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
What's that?

Might be the snow, it might be the breeze
The wind might have blown down the old oak tree
Mamma looked out the window
We asked what she saw
Shh, that might be Santa Claus

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
That's right

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
Yeah

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
That's right

Ba boom, ba boom boom boom boom boom
