

Creature, get up on your legs
The world around you's gotten more complex
Your needs diversified
Assign priorities, sedate your mind

Recurrence for the weak
Eternal spiral of self-defeat
Set out to find your niche
Relearn how to use your teeth

You are unique
But you will disappear
From this bleak
Celestial sphere

Time is not
A line to connect the dots

Cosmic wheel
Cyclic history, repeat, eternity
