The Ocean Collective

Broken bones, onward
The seed to be in defect
Open void, silence
We said we would never neglect

The unknown deliverance
Embrace, feel the far
In search, remembrance
Words unspoken be heard

Give it back, the truth they never had
Walk away from the past that was never there
Raise the sword, slowly feel it die
They tried, we tried, did we try?

Broken bones, onward
The seed to be in defect
The unknown deliverance
Words unspoken be heard

Give it back, the truth they never had
Walk away from the past that was never there
Raise the sword, slowly feel it die
They tried, we tried, did we try?

Broken bones, onward
The seed to be in defect
The unknown deliverance
Words unspoken be heard

Broken bones, onward
