

Amends Again

The Ongoing Concept

I see you behind that mask
'Cause everybody knows it now
But you don't care
You got a way that I don't wanna be
You got a way that I don't wanna be

If it's not picture perfect, it's not worth it
Yeah yeah yeah
Because you're not worth my time
Give it, give it, give it now
Can you keep a promise?
If I make amends with you, keep it on the down low
But are you worth it?
If I make amends with you, keep it on the down low
But are you worth it to me?

You wanna make amends with me?
Well I've got news for you
Breaking the silence
Your words, are they still poison?
Just empty promises?
You're just a ghost in my head

I'm never gonna be your lover
I'm never gonna be
I'm never gonna be
I'm never gonna sing your name with praise
It's something you'll get over
'Cause you're just a ghost
And you've haunted every thought I've had
I'm sick of following ghosts
The shadows feel so at home
Whatcha say to me? Whatcha say to me?
'Cause I've heard nothing
Whatcha say to me? Whatcha say to me?
'Cause I've seen nothing but your flaws
But I'm flawlessly in awe of how you kept so calm while you're hiding in the dark

If it's not picture perfect, it's not worth it
Yeah yeah yeah
Because you're not worth my time
Give it, give it, give it now
Can you keep a promise?
If I make amends with you, keep it on the down low
But are you worth it?
If I make amends with you, keep it on the down low
But are you worth it to me?

You wanna make amends with me?
Well I've got news for you
I gave you a chance to make it all right
You turned it around
You're never gonna be my lover
I still hear you knocking, but you're dead to me

You're dead to me!
Silent inside a grave
The concept, a silent conspiracy
You're just a ghost in my head
