

Amends

The Ongoing Concept

Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, o-oh, oh, oh, oh

You wanna make amends with me?
Well I've got news for you
I gave you a chance to make it all right, you turned it around
You're never gonna be my lover
I still hear you knocking, but you're dead to me
Wanna make amends with me?
I should have saw this coming
(You're just a ghost)

Oh, there's a ghost and it's trying to take my head
Let it speak, let it speak and I'll drown in deception
Oh, but these words, they sound promising to the unsuspecting
I should have, I should have
I should have saw this coming, oh
That ghost is just a fact of fiction

All I have is what you want and spend me without a thought for tomorrow
You take it all from me and you will never give it back, but you still
You seek me out, but I see the greed behind your mask
You call my name, but your words, they've turned to poison

You wanna make amends with me?
Well I've got news for you
I gave you a chance to make it all right, you turned it around
You're never gonna be my lover
I still hear you knocking, but you're dead to me
Wanna make amends with me?
I should have saw this coming

You take my life and all I have in it
You leave me dead without a thought of sorrow
I hear your voice and it leaves me vacant
But it seems I can't escape it
You're just a ghost in my head
You're just a dead man
You're just a soul in the grave
You're dead to me

You will never be
You're never gonna be my lover
You will never be
You're never gonna be my lover
You will never be
You're never gonna be my lover
You will never be
No, you'll never be my lover 'cause you're just a ghost

You wanna make amends with me?

Well I've got news for you
I gave you a chance to make it all right, you turned it around
You're never gonna be my lover
I still hear you knocking, but you're dead to me
Wanna make amends with me?
I should have saw this coming

You're just a ghost in my head
You're just a dead man
You're just a soul in the grave
So just be silent
