Domesticated

The Ongoing Concept

Something new has got a hold of me
Sanity is keeping me on my feet

Domesticated, my life is tired and jaded
Maturity is holding down my feet

Keep it down, keep it down, keep it down
My life's different than I make it sound
It's not something that I want to say
I am not the one you used to know

I don't know who I am, I can't see myself anymore
I'm not sure who I am
But I got try, but I got to try, but I got to try

Domesticated
Oh yeah I got to me be a man now huh

I don't know where I'm going, but I know where I've been
I've been so lost before but I think I've finally found my place

My days are numbered one by one
(His days are numbered one by one)

I've got something I want to say
I don't know how long I'm gonna live (How long he will live)
But I got to try, but I got to try, but I got to try

I don't know who I am, I can't see myself anymore
I'm not sure who I am
But I got to try, but I got to try, but I got to try

Keep it down, keep it down, keep it down
Maturity has got the best of me now

Down, down, maturity has got the best of me now
My days are numbered one by one

Domesticated, my life is tired and jaded
Maturity is holding down my feet

I don't know who I am, I can't see myself anymore
I'm not sure who I am
But I got to try, but I got to try, but I got to try

I got to be a man
