

Spirit Lake

The Ongoing Concept

Regret, regret
Some things are better left unsaid
I am the one that is drowning inside

Down, down, down, I am drowning, I am drowning
But drowning brings me closer to

You have something that I need, you have something that I want

You speak to me I know

And I am not saying no, I am not saying no because drowning brings me closer to

You have something that I need, you have something that I want
You speak to me I know, and I'm not saying no

Falling for a second there

Goodbye so long
